

HOW TO WEAR DOCTORAL REGALIA

The front of the hood should be placed velvet side up with the pointed tip facing down.

Graduate College pin should be worn over the heart.

Honors cords and the medallion should be worn under the hood.

Regalia Front View

Note: If the hood tip has a front loop, attach it to a shirt button before closing the gown to prevent the hood from riding against the neck.

The back of the hood should be worn so that the velvet drapes and is visible.

The back of the hood should be worn so that the orange and black satin lining is visible.

Regalia Back View

Note: If the hood has a back cord, it is buttoned to keep the hood from sliding off the shoulders.

Carrying a Hood

The hood should be draped over the left arm.

The hood should be folded with the velvet and fabric outside and satin inside.

The hood should be draped with the pointed top end on the outside of the left arm.
